

MISSIONS FOCUS

ANDRIES & SUNETTE SCHWARTZ

Serving in MOZAMBIQUE

Dear friends,

We praise the Lord for the wonderful things that happened in the community in the North of the country, where a group of mainly graduates from the Bible school here in the South, presented a 3-month Bible course. One of the Muslim ladies on the course was thrown out of the house by her husband when she continued attending the course. She remained faithful to Jesus however, and later he allowed her back home again. While doing some training on evangelism the students visited many homes, with more than half of the people they visited, Catholic and Muslim, believed and became followers of Jesus. Please pray for the students to continue applying what they have learnt, and for the protection and growth of the young believers.

At the Bible school in the South, we have had a three-day-planning for the coming year. It went very well, but please pray that the Lord will continue to guide us and that He will send the right students for the courses next year.

Andries is currently teaching two modules of the Veritas course on Bible interpretation at a Bible School in Lichinga, in the Northern Niassa province. He will be assisted by two facilitators who he trained in 2024.

The Lord has been raising up missionaries to reach people groups in their own country.

- Pray for these brothers and sisters who sometimes work under very difficult circumstances.
- Pray that the Lord will continue to call workers for His harvest.

Our very best wishes in Christ,
Andries & Sunette

BAPTIST CONFESSION OF FAITH OF 1689 JUSTIFICATION

Chapter 11 Paragraph 3

By his obedience and death, Christ fully discharged the debt of all those who are justified. By his sacrifice in the blood of his cross, he underwent in their place the penalty due to them, so making an appropriate, real, and full satisfaction of God's justice on their behalf.¹ Yet their justification is entirely of free grace, because he was given by the Father for them,² and his obedience and satisfaction was accepted in their place,³ both actions being done freely, and not because of anything in them.⁴ So both the exact justice and the rich grace of God are glorified in the justification of sinners.⁵

MEMORY LANE

THE NEW LIFE – Love of Prayer

Matthew 6:6

Read all of Matthew 6:1-18

In Mt. 6:1-18 that Jesus teaches the right ways of enacting the religious practises of giving, prayer and fasting for the believer. Jesus cautions that we be careful not to practice our righteousness in front of others.

Does Jesus prohibit public prayer? Clearly not!
He publicly prayed himself (Mt 14:19).

The believer should desire God as the only audience in prayer whether it is private or public.

Our longing for the coming of the reign of God and desire to pray to our Father finds daily worshipful expression in the new Life in Christ.
