MISSIONS FOCUS

NORMAND & HENRIËTTE SAINDON

Hello to our family

Thanks so much to the mission committee and CPBC for your care and support to us!

After returning from our time in Canada visiting family, Henriëtte had the privilege to travel to Chad to join over 100 Christian media professionals at a conference focused on "Christian Media: Innovating, Resisting, and Serving". This included everyone from journalists and radio hosts to technicians and managers who are working with radio on the African continent. The topics felt especially critical with the rise of jihadist terrorism in the central Sahel.

This conference has been prayed for years and is a miracle of God in light of the security challenges and struggles within the local church. God continued to show his hand in the turnout for the event. We had expected roughly twenty participants and God brought over 100 fellow believers. We pray that the information shared and connections made here will produce lasting fruits that lead to more reached and brought into God's kingdom.

Please pray with us that the ripples from this conference will travel further than we can imagine. That those working locally and further abroad in Africa will carry away meaningful information; both practically and spiritually. Pray that God will open the doors for more conferences like this in the future.

In other local news, we recently had a chance to join a reunion of our group from 1981-1983 who were on the ship, Doulos! Also, Normand has done some Portuguese translation for a Christian Military Fellowship conference in Cape Town for the Mozambican delegates, which was enjoyed immensely!

Many blessings,
Henriëtte for us

BAPTIST CONFESSION OF FAITH OF 1689

ADOPTION

Chapter 12 Paragraph 1

God has granted[1] that, in and for his only Son Jesus Christ,[3] all those who are justified[3] share in the grace of adoption. By this they are numbered with and enjoy the liberties and privileges of the children of God. They have his name put upon them,[4] and receive the Spirit of adoption. They have access to the throne of grace with boldness, and are able to cry, 'Abba, Father!'[5] They are pitied, protected, provided for, and chastened by him as by a father, yet they are never cast off, but are sealed to the day of redemption,[6] and inherit the promises as heirs of everlasting salvation.[7]

MEMORY LANE

THE NEW LIFE – Love of Enemies

Matthew 5:43-45

It can be difficult to envision how Jesus' teaching might be lived out in its often messy particulars.

However, it is not by accident that the six exhortations in 5:31-48 derived from the Torah, but intensified by Jesus, culminate in the command to love both neighbor and enemy (Lev. 19:18).

Love of all, even one's enemy is the ultimate expression of Torah obedience and loyalty.

It is not an easy task. But it fruitful to reflect upon the ways in which this command breaks down barriers between people.

Jesus Christ, by loving us and dying for us when we were still His enemies set the Christian example (Romans 5:7-8).
